ORDER:

Government have reviewed the price situation and the availability of Redgram dal and Edible Oils in the open market and has taken cognizance of the discontinuation of the Government of India Scheme of Supply of Palmolien Oil at subsidized rate from 1st April, 2009 and extension of subsidy of Rs.10 per Kg on Redgram by the Government of India till September, 2009 for supply to the State Government for distribution through the Public Distribution System.

2. Government, after carefully reviewing the present market trend of edible oils including Palmolien Oil, order that in future the subsidy on supply of Palmolien Oil should be pegged at Rs.7/- per Ltr. Accordingly, the issue price of the Civil Supplies Corporation to the F.P.Shop dealers shall be the actual economic cost of the Civil Supplies Corporation (-) Rs.7/- per Ltr. to the F.P.Shop dealers and the F.P.Shop dealers shall add their margin of Rs.1/- per ltr and in turn sell that to the cardholders. While fixing the economic cost, the Civil Supplies Corporation shall ensure that the economic cost is rounded off to the next integer or lower integer so that after adding the margin of Rs.1/-, the end consumer price is in rupees.

3. Government after reviewing the availability position of Regram dal both within the country and outside the country and the open market prices of Redgram dal also, order that the supply of Redgram dal to the BPL cardholders shall be revised to half-a-kg. per month and the subsidy per Kg. shall be pegged at Rs.10/- per Kg. on the distribution of Redgram dal through Public Distribution System on par with the Govt. of India subsidy of Rs.10 per Kg. on Redgram. Accordingly, the issue price of the Civil Supplies Corporation to the F.P.Shop dealers shall be the actual economic cost of the Civil Supplies Corporation (-) Rs.10/- per Kg. to the F.P.Shop dealers and the F.P.Shop dealers shall add their margin of Rs.0.55 per Kg. and in turn sell that to the cardholders. While fixing the economic cost, the Civil Supplies Corporation shall ensure that the economic cost is rounded off to the next integer or lower integer so that after adding the margin of Rs.0.55, the end consumer price is in rupees.

4. The supply position and the subsidy component per Kg. shall be reviewed from time to time and further decision would be taken depending on the open market price situation and availability of stocks.

5. These orders shall come into force w.e.f 1.7.2009.

6. This order issues with the concurrence of the Finance Department vide their U.O.No.6508/101/A2/Exp.AHFFCS&E/2009, Dated: 15.7.2009.
